Press Release

On 10/13/2025, an incident was reported to the Oswego Police Department regarding an event that occurred on 10/12/2025. It was reported that a male DoorDash customer had been nude inside his residence when a DoorDash delivery driver dropped off a food order. An investigation was initiated by the Oswego Police Department, during which it was discovered that the delivery driver had taken video of the nude male. The video, along with the subsequent investigation, indicates that the male was incapacitated and unconscious on his couch due to alcohol consumption. The video was taken from the exterior of the male's residence. The DoorDash driver subsequently posted the video to social media, where it drew significant attention.

It was further discovered that the DoorDash driver had made claims of being sexually assaulted during this incident. The investigation by the Oswego Police Department determined that no sexual assault occurred. The male depicted in the video cooperated with police and provided a statement.

The investigation ultimately led to the arrest of the DoorDash driver, Olivia Henderson, 23, of Oswego, for recording and disseminating the videos. Henderson was charged with the following:

- One count of Unlawful Surveillance in the Second Degree (E Felony)
- One count of Dissemination of an Unlawful Surveillance Image in the First Degree (E Felony)

Henderson was released after being processed on the above charges and was issued an appearance ticket for a future court date in Oswego City Court. The Oswego Police Department continues to investigate the circumstances surrounding this incident and is in communication with the Oswego County District Attorney's Office regarding the prosecution of these charges.

Anyone with information about this investigation or other is encouraged to contact the Oswego Police Department at (315)342-8120. Calls will be kept confidential.
