

After some time, I've been able to properly collect myself and formally respond to @2code_s' recent allegations against me, Build2Inspire, also known as RingHeads. I would appreciate if you could take the time to please read.

I will not deny or try to defend the claims about calling 2code a "rapist". This was not meant to be taken seriously and I should not have said this. I was 13 years old and I did not understand the seriousness of the word at the time. I deeply apologise to anyone who may have been affected by my words.

The claim where you said that I created an inappropriate Roblox video is entirely false. I did not create this video, and you didn't include the context of why it was sent. I sent this video as evidence and you spun it on me. This video was created by Crafter, which is one of your associates. Crafter has recently been exposed for pretending to be black, while being extremely racist, transphobic, homophobic and much more. You can look for yourself by searching it on Twitter. From my personal experience in 2022, when I was 12 years old, Crafter sent me a child gore video just because "he didn't like me" and created those inappropriate videos of me and other people. I told you and your friends this, and you ignored me and continued to associate yourself with him and saying that I am a liar. I personally have been attacked by Crafter in the past with false claims too.

You attempted to use recent drama and stigma against TheOfficialTeddy to correlate non-existent points based on assumptions and minor coincidences.

If you were knowledgeable enough, you could come to understand that the tag in reference to vayhood is towards the game created by vayhood official and not TheOfficialTeddy. TheOfficialTeddy has been widely recognized as a bad figure in the Roblox community and stealing game names/concepts is not out of the ordinary of his recent actions. Due to this, I personally removed the tag from the game description as soon as I became aware.

On that note, I recently changed the game name, to reiterate, due to TheOfficialTeddys' recent actions, to something more appropriate and less in resemblance to him. This game was made to take away players from TheOfficialTeddy's game. It did not and never has included any inappropriate content similar to his games. I have never and never will support or condone the actions of TheOfficialTeddy.

I think that it's also important to mention that during the time that this situation took place, I was going through a very difficult period. I was being doxxed, rumours were spreading and I was vulnerable. I trusted people who later used that trust against me. I recognise now, that I was being manipulated while trying to navigate this situation.

I am no longer associated with the person who was sending pornographic content in the group chat that you showed. I was made aware that this person was sending other weird content, and I had unfriended them after.

And just to be clear, in 2023, I was 13. I am born in 2009, and at the time of writing, I am 15. I was not 17. Over the years, I have been working to improve myself and I am more mature now. I am not the same person I was in 2023. I was childish and unaware that my past actions could have consequences in the future. And once again, I express my deepest apologies to everyone surrounding this situation.
