About Ringhead

Ringhead is a verified YouTuber with over 600k subscribers, making their commitment to short videos, while she seems kind and nice at the front, there is an entirely different story from behind that she is hiding.

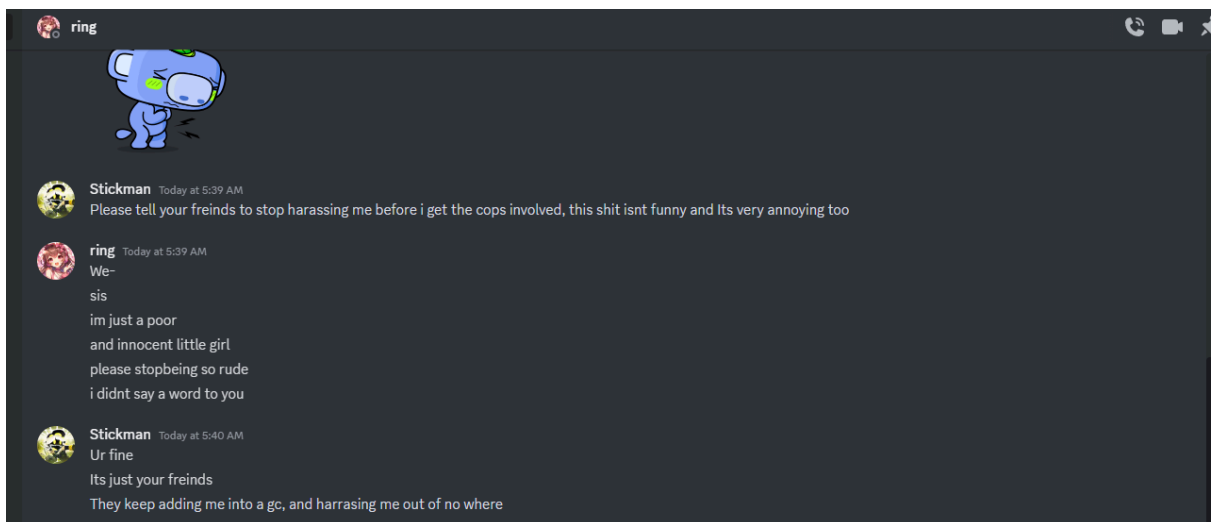

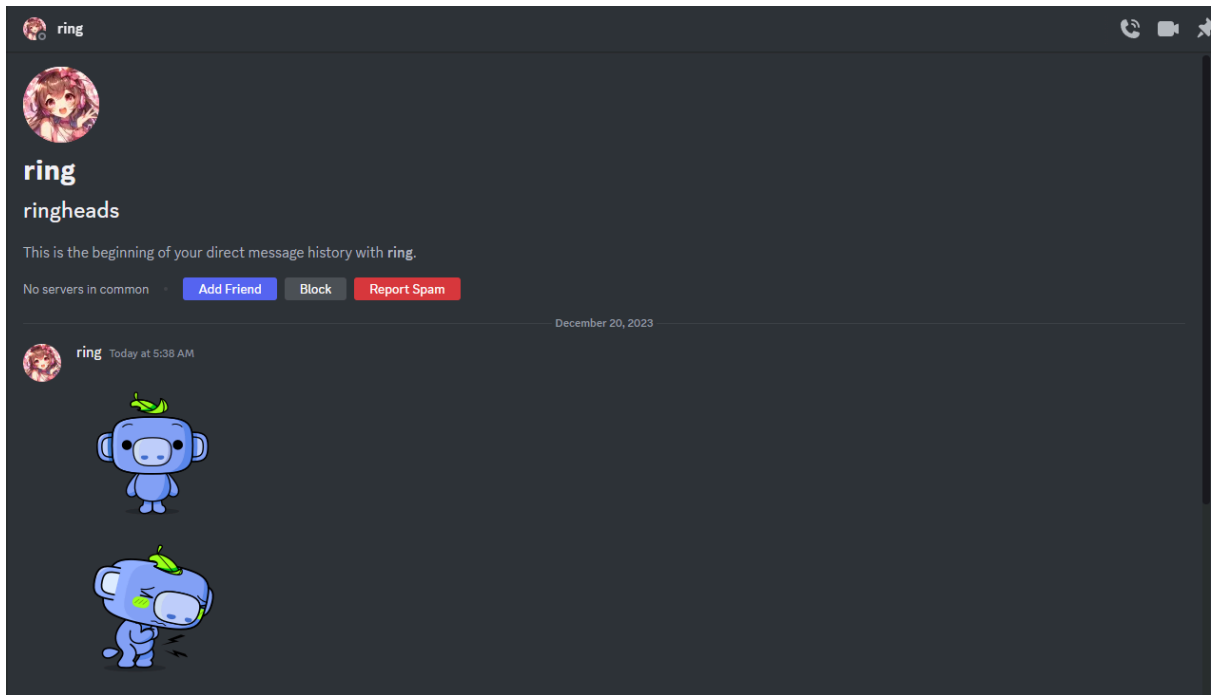

#1 Friend Group Harassment

Ring has sent her friends to go add a random staff from the Armoreds reality server, which in this case is me, they kept adding me into group chats nonstop, after being told to stop adding me multiple times. BEFORE YOU REPLY TO THE POST Blocking do nothing as they will find a way to re-add me back into the GC.

After leaving the group Ring proceeded to send me a friend request and here is how the conversation went

She proceeded to add me into the GC again with the same people and proceeded to say im harassing her, even though I have never talked to this person nor known who they are until the end of the argument. She kept saying I sent her Disgusting comments, even though I never made any comments to her, The only things I said were "Your friends were harassing me". She got out of her way to do what next that could almost ruin the fanbase of the stickverse.

#2 Attempted to Manipulate Users

She sent a invite link to the stickverse when she hasnt ever been in the server, and when she joined she proceed to try to manipulate users into thinking I was a p3d0phile, I was fortunately enough to ban her for attemption of manipulations, and Harrasment against me.

She threatened to call the police on me even though I have never done anything against this user. I proceed to add her into a new GC with ArmoredReality, and Starla to

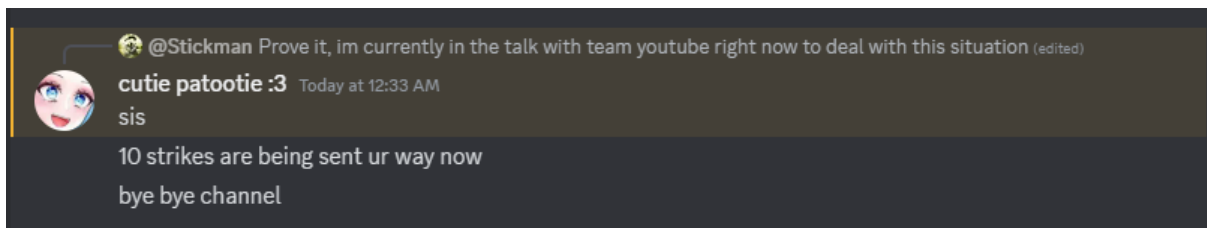

#3 Confronting them

Starla Has recorded this video to show of the entire conversation of confronting them, asking what i did wrong, along side proof. She proceed to refuse to answer and keep saying "i harassed her" without any evedince to back up

#4 Here we go again

After blocking their friends multiple times, her friend proceed to continue to add me into gc and proceed to send threats of copyright strikes to my channel, it may seem normal to yall who might not know about strikes but its very bad, as 3 strikes on your youtube channel can lead to a termination. Even if it was real or not I did report this to youtube and they confirm that they will protect the channel from this by them, but sadly wont take action.

Unsure about the next thing but she did say this in the GC too.

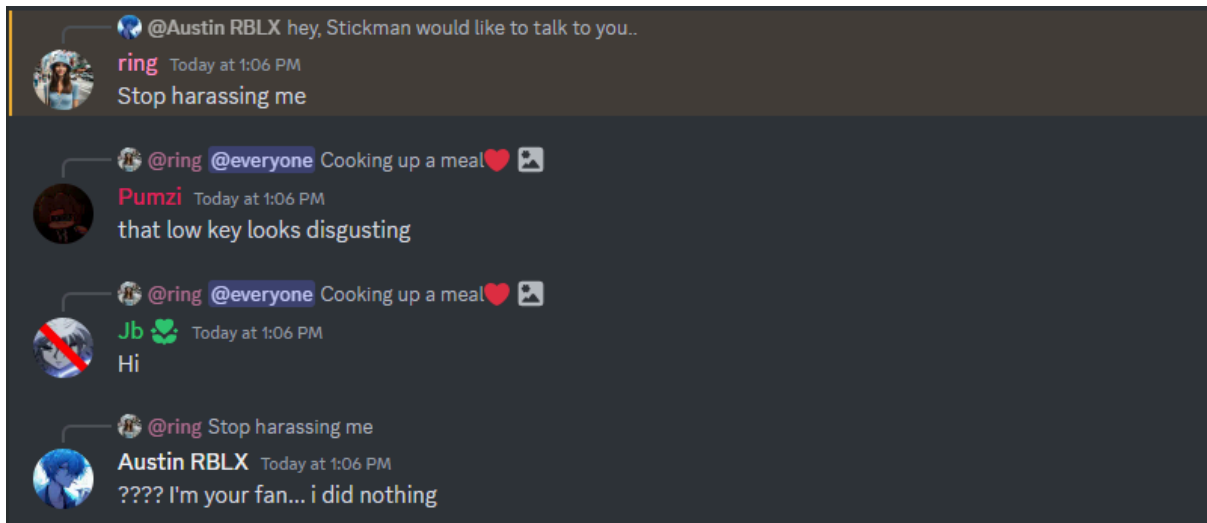

#5 The Server Controversity

Before you continue, i had issue typing in the image here as i was full of anger, what I was ment to say was "How am i harassing you when your harrasing me."

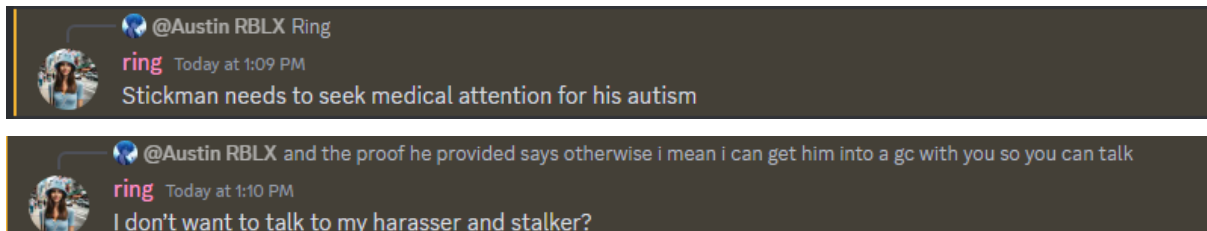

Just want to clarify that before we continue on. Thanks for understanding

Ring has now officially accused her fans for harrasing her

She proceed to go on and say these stuff:

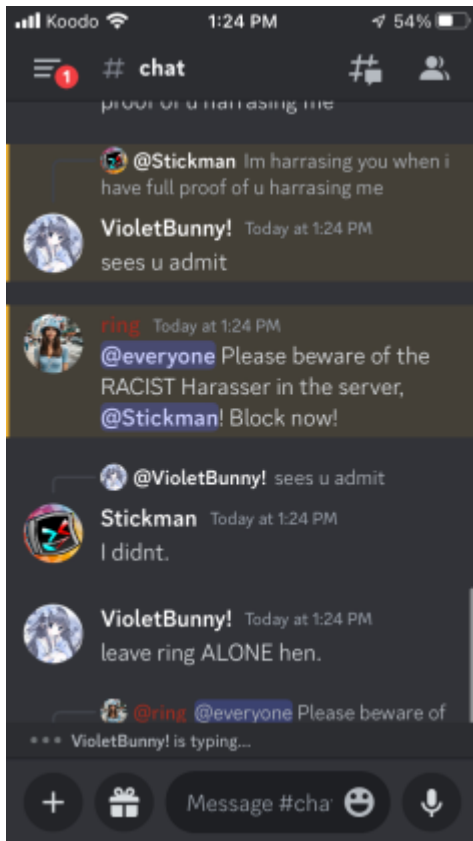

Now heres the main question. How am i Harrasing this user when she
A. Knows where i live
B. She the one who sent me a friend request, and begin harassing me.

Me, my freinds, basically everyone Saw the whole situation went down.

Not only that but the first image got me very pissed off (thats why i had issue typing the entire time)

Then when i confront her for what she has done, She proceed to call me a racist, I have nerver Said anything to her witch could be racist.
