RE: 21-4128, Greer v. Moon, et al
Dist/Ag docket: 2:20-CV-00647-TC

Dear Appellant:

Please note the following requirements for prosecuting this matter.

The record on appeal in this case will consist of copies of all relevant documents filed in the district court except those excluded by 10th Cir. R. 10.4(E). As such, you do not need to submit any record materials to the court.

This court has been informed that the district court granted you leave to proceed without prepayment of fees during the proceedings in that court. You do not have to pay the filing and docketing fees, nor do you need to apply to this court for leave to appeal without prepayment of fees.

You must file an opening brief by December 7, 2021. You may use the Pro Se Brief form or you may file a separate brief. If you do not use the form, your brief must comply with the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure and Tenth Circuit Rules with respect to briefs. Failure to file a brief could result in dismissal of this appeal without further notice. See 10th Cir. R. 42.1. Copies of the brief must be served on all opposing counsel and all unrepresented parties. The clerk may refuse to file any brief which does not comply with the rules and the court's instructions. Motions for extensions of time are not favored and, absent extraordinary circumstances, will not be granted.

The appellee may file an answer brief within 30 days after filing and service of your opening brief. Copies of the brief must be served on all opposing counsel and all unrepresented parties.

If the appellee files an answer brief, you may file a reply brief. Your reply brief must be filed within 21 days after filing and service of appellee's answer brief. If your appeal has more than one appellee, they may each file a separate answer brief. Regardless of how many answer briefs are filed, you may only file one reply brief. Copies of your reply brief must be served on all opposing counsel and all unrepresented parties.

Please contact this office if you have questions.

Sincerely,
