360TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

TARRANT COUNTY, TEXAS

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER
AND ORDER SETTING HEARING FOR TEMPORARY ORDERS

The application of Petitioner, RONALD J. TOYE, for temporary restraining orders was presented to the Court today. The child the subject of this suit is RONALD J. TOYE. Respondent is ANDREA L. TOYE.

The Court examined the pleadings of Petitioner and finds that Petitioner is entitled to a temporary restraining order.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the clerk of this Court issue a temporary restraining order restraining Respondent, and Respondent is immediately restrained, from:

Disturbing the peace of the child or of another party.

Withdrawing the child from enrollment in the school or day-care facility where the child is presently enrolled.

Hiding or secreting the child from Petitioner.

Making disparaging remarks regarding Petitioner or Petitioner's family in the presence or within the hearing of the child.

This restraining order is effective immediately and shall continue in force and effect until further order of this Court or until it expires by operation of law. This order shall be binding on Respondent; on Respondent's agents, servants, and employees; and on those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this order by personal service or otherwise.

The requirement of a bond is waived.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk shall issue notice to Respondent, ANDREA L. TOYE, to appear, and Respondent is ORDERED to appear in person, and to furnish information sufficient to accurately identify Respondent's net resources and ability to pay child support and to bring with her tax returns for the past two years, a financial statement substantially in the form and detail prescribed by the Texas Family Law Practice Manual (2d ed.), form 4-2, and pay stubs for the past three months. IT IS ORDERED that Respondent shall appear with those documents before this Court in the courthouse at 200 East Weatherford Street, 4th floor, Fort Worth, Texas 76196, on 12/19/09 at 8:30 A. M. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether, while this case is pending:

The preceding temporary restraining order should be made a temporary injunction pending final hearing.

Petitioner and Respondent should be appointed temporary joint managing conservators of the child and Petitioner should be designated as the conservator who has the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the child. Respondent should have a possession schedule that is in the child's best interests.

Respondent should be ordered to pay child support, and health insurance premiums for coverage on the child, and 50 percent of the child's uninsured medical expenses while this case is pending.

The Court should order the preparation of a social study into the circumstances and condition of the child and the home of any person requesting conservatorship of, possession of, or access to the child.

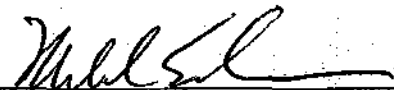

The Court should order the parties to participate in an alternative dispute resolution process before trial of this matter.

The Court should order a pretrial conference to simplify the issues in this case and determine the stipulations of the parties and for any other matters the Court deems appropriate.

The Court should make all other and further orders that are pleaded for or that are deemed necessary for the safety and welfare of the child.
